

REVEAL YOUR TRUE PURPOSE, REAL STRENGTHS AND UNTAPPED POTENTIAL!

There seems to be a global epidemic that's happening behind closed doors of women wanting something else....something more out of life. And this may be one of the reasons why we are spending so much time on the Internet searching for an answer, for a spark of inspiration.

It's all in search of something else...but what?

And that is the million dollar question.

But, what?

When you've got an entire population of women searching for something else, but not entirely sure what they're searching for, the problem is not what they're doing—it's what they haven't done. It's an identity crisis commonly in disguise as a career, relationship or religion crisis. And I think it's plaguing so many great women for one simple reason:

Everyone's taught to be the good wife, mother, sister, daughter and friend—but in taking on all of these roles, you never learn who you really are.

And you're lost. You are lost inside yourself, and you don't know how to get back.

“Who was I before I became everything to everyone else?”

Then one day, ten, twenty, thirty years later you wake up and you have no idea what you even want, because you don't know who you are. It's like picking out an entire life for a stranger in Secret Santa.

So when women come to me and they say, "I'm not sure if I'm on the right track" or "I feel like there's more out there for me", it represents a desire to awaken; to discover more; to create something else...something magical.

How do you get to know yourself again—or maybe for the first time?
